St. Martin

When he was still a soldier a poor man one day asked of him an alms, whereupon St. Martin offered him the half of his cloak which he cut in two portions with his sword. Engaged in the service of God he continued his military calling in a more noble way, combating for Him with all the strength and greatness of his soul. Wishing to remove from his own hands all traces of idolatry he braved the wrath of the pagans, and heaven confirmed his zeal by miracles. The union of monastic austerities with the ministry of souls did not appear to him to be an impossibility but a perfection, and a most fruitful alliance. In the Episcopate he did not hesitate to remain faithful to his rude covering and his cell cut in the rock. His progress in contemplation was such that he was enabled to read the supernatural world so well that he could discern the hostile actions of the demons, the evil genius characteristic of each of them and the title under which several had been worshiped by idolaters as Jupiter and Mercury. Before expiring he cried out: "Lord, if I am still necessary to Thy people I do not refuse to labor. But Thy will be done!"

Prayers for the Faithful Departed

DIVINE Heart of Jesus, grant, we beseech Thee, eternal rest to the souls in purgatory, the final grace to those who shall die to-day, true repentance to sinners, the light of the faith to pagans, and thy blessing to me and mine. To Thee, O most compassionate Heart of Jesus, I commend all these souls, and I offer to Thee on their behalf all thy merits, together with the merits of thy most holy Mother and of all the saints and angels, and all the sacrifices of the holy Mass, Communion prayers and good works, which shall be accomplished to-day throughout the Christian world. Leo XIII, Br. March 13, 1901. (100 Days, once a day)

MY Jesus, by that copious sweat of blood with which Thou didst bedew the ground in the garden, have mercy on the souls of my nearest relations who are suffering in purgatory.

PATER, Ave, Requiem aeternam.

MY Jesus, by that cruel scourging which Thou didst suffer, bound to the column, have pity on the souls of my other relations and friends who are suffering in purgatory.

PATER, Ave, Requiem aeternam.

MY Jesus, by that crown of sharpest thorns which pierced thy sacred temples, have mercy on that soul which is most neglected and least prayed for, and on that soul which is furthest from being released from the pains of purgatory.

PATER, Ave, Requiem aeternam.

MY Jesus, by those sorrowful steps which Thou didst take with the Cross on thy shoulders, have mercy on that soul which is nearest to its departure from purgatory; and by the pains which Thou didst suffer together with thy most holy Mother Mary, when Thou didst meet her on the road to Calvary, deliver from the pains of purgatory those souls who were devout to this beloved Mother.

PATER, Ave, Requiem aeternam.

MY Jesus, by thy most holy body stretched on the Cross, by thy most holy hands and feet pierced with hard nails, by thy most cruel death, and by thy most holy side laid open with a lance, have pity and mercy on those poor souls; free them from the awful pains they suffer, call and admit them to thy most sweet embrace in Paradise.

PATER, Ave, Requiem aeternam.

O HOLY souls, tormented in most cruel pains, as one truly devoted to you, I promise never to forget you, and continually to pray to the Most High for your release. I beseech you to respond to this offering which I make to you, and obtain for me from God, with whom you are so powerful on behalf of the living, that I may be freed from all dangers of soul and body; I beg both for myself and for my relations and benefactors, friends and enemies, pardon for our sins, and the grace of perseverance in good, whereby we may save our souls. Set us free from all misfortunes, miseries, sicknesses, trials and labours. Obtain for us peace of heart; assist us in all our actions; succour us promptly in all our spiritual and temporal needs; console and defend us in our dangers. Pray for the supreme Pontiff, for the exaltation of holy Church, for peace between nations, for Christian princes, and for tranquility among peoples; and obtain that we may one day all rejoice together in Paradise. Amen. Leo XIII, December 14, 1889. (100 Days, once a day)
